

the exhibition "Tradition in design – Contemporary clothing – tradition included"

with a complete collection of original models by five designers, is conceived from the start as a mobile exhibition

ÚĽUV intends to make it available in various places in the course of 2022 and 2023. We would be delighted if this exhibition matched your portfolio of activities, and if you would be interested in opening it to the public in your premises.

The stands, the structure and the mannequins are free-standing (foldable and easy to transport), and can be set out indoors as needed. The textile banners are to be hung from the ceiling (ceiling structure). All the furnishings can be packed in transport boxes and packages which are available.

The exhibition consists of:

- ✓ five metal stands for placing or handling models by five designers,
- ✓ five mannequins for the designers' models,
- ✓ five large-format textile banners (photographs of the clothing worn by a model)
- ✓ 24 items of clothing (making up 15 models) and 18 clothing accessories and items of jewellery by five designers,
- ✓ one metal structure containing text in Slovak and English (can be replaced by a different language on request)

The insurance value of the exhibition furnishings and the original works by the designers is 25,000.00 Euros.
